Leaf'Pool would smile sweetly ; a soft hum escaping her muzzle as she removed the old cobwebs from the grey tom's spine. She'd notice almost immediately - Ash'Fur was acting different from usual. It was obvious something was on his mind. With a gentle breeze shifting her coat :- Leaf'Pool would question him with a soft gesture."Ash'Fur you seem upset. Is something bothering you? If needed I can get you some-" Before she could finish her sentencing the tom would answer bluntly,"I- I have a crush. And it's someone you wouldn't think it'd be." The she'cat would chuckle ; finding the shy glaze overcoming the tom's facials cute,"Oh Ash'Fur. It's okay- I wouldn't care at all who you liked. Whether it was a tom or a she." Ash'Fur would smile - he always knew he could count on the hazel tabby to tell her if something was bothering him, it still shook him to tell though."It's Squirrel'Flight. And it angers me how she's with Bramble'Claw- I know I shouldn't be mad but I-" He'd shut his muzzle quickly ; noticing Leaf'Pool looked upset suddenly as if she was shocked. And she was - it felt selfish of her to be jealous. She was with Crow'Feather :- but Ash'Fur was a charming tom and she couldn't help but have fantasies of him,"Leaf'Pool-" She wouldn't even answer him ; with a gentle sweep of her plume Leaf'Pool would trot towards her spot of the medicine den ; soft tears tripling down her cheeks.

It was late of nightfall ; all the feline's within thunder'clan were asleep peacefully. All expect Leaf'Pool her throat was dry and her oculars were red. She was filled with emotion throughout the day after receiving the news the tom she liked had feelings for her obnoxious sibling made her angry and stubborn. She didn't speak to Ash'Fur ever since the early morning - and now he was asleep. Or that's what she thought. The she's cranium would jerk around as she heard a muffled moan escape the ' resting ' tom's physique."Mm- S-so good.." Was he dreaming? Leaf'Pool would try and listen closely ; was Ash'Fur playing with himself? Leaf'Pool would try and not make a single sound - taking soft steps to the nest where the tom was resting. Unfortunately the molly would fail to remain silent as she'd gasp in sudden shock as she realized the tom was playing with his member. Ash'Fur would realize instantly and would jump up in shock blinking helplessly. Leaf'Pool would smile sweetly yet lust would fill her amber gaze,"Ash'Fur, no need to freak out. It's not like I'm going to-" The grey tabby tom would cut her off panicking,"L-Leafpool! I-I'm so sorry! Please don't tell anyone in the clan-" LeafPool's gaze would widen as an idea sparked in her mind. Perhaps she could get herself some pleasure if she convinced the tom. Ash'Fur would notice her change in persona, noting it aloud."You're thinking...What is it..?" Leaf'Pool would chuckle soon throwing herself forward. She'd circle the tom, her tail lacing his back making him shiver."Oh Ash'Fur-it would be a shame if anyone did find out...Especially Squirrel'Flight." Ash'Fur blinked clearly uncomfortable with what the molly was going on about,"And as the medicine cat my job is too make sure all my patients are treated, so-" With Ash'Fur distracted Leaf'Pool easily overpowered him - being able to take the lead and pinning the sire. Ash'Fur would gulp, trying to give up yet the she's amber gaze burning through him made him feel light'headed and dizzy."Stop. Now, let me do my job and serve you. If you wish you can just walk away from this situation and I'll tell the whole clan of this situation. And don't think for a second you'll be deemed innocent either, I saw you playing with yourself. So if you dare to put this on me- it surely will backfire." She smirked, glad to see Ash'Fur was easing in himself in her grip,"I see you've decided. Great, now I'm going to suck on your cock." Ash'Fur blinked - he never saw this side of the once sweet and innocent medicine cat. A bluest of pleasure erupted in him as suddenly the she's warm mouth wrapped around his member. Her head bobbed ; allowing more entry for him. Ash'Fur moaned clenching his teeth, this was intense. Her salmon'ribbon pulsing against his twitching member - the feel of attempting to be quiet was making it even more exciting. He was already quite in the mood once Leaf'Pool had caught him, making this blow rather easy. Ash'Fur would grip the top of Lead'Pools head as he was rather close - soon his warm seed would fill her throat. He'd release a soft grunt soon followed after a moan, yet he'd feel immediate guilt. He loved Squirrel'Flight not Leaf'Pool. Yet the sight of the brown tabby lapping up the remaining treat from him did make him flustered."Hm, your cock seems to be in good shape. Is there anything else?" Ash'Fur would shake his head softly - his heartbeat ceasing slowly."N-no.." He'd whisper watched Lear'Pool sit back,"Great. Now, I'll keep this little secret for now- Goodnight Ash'Fur." But before Leaf'Pool could usher herself to sleep, the tom would ask a single question out of curiously."How did you know how to do that..?" Leaf'Pool blinked - Crow'Feather did teach her,"Practice." She lastly mewed ; soon attempting to drift asleep.

' Revenge. That's what I'm going to get. ' Ash'Fur smirked devilishly ; a single paw of his digging into the soft soil. The warm breeze of early summer shifted past him - a sweet scent distracting him from his planning."Ash'Fur! There you are, Squirrel'Flight wanted me to fetch you for her. If you aren't busy- she was wondering if you'd like to help her pick some dandelions for Lion'Blaze, Holly'Leaf, and Jay'Feather." It was Leaf'Pool :- of course she'd be willing to do a favor for her backstabbing bat'blind sister. He hadn't forgotten of that one night ; that one night where Leaf'Pool gave him satisfaction. Although it wasn't regrettable, Ash'Fur still had eyes for Squirrel'Flight. Then she had Bramble'Claws kits. He'd always wish for a way of payback. It'd take him a moment to respond,"Hm? Oh.." He'd grumble shorting a unsteady glance to the hazel tabby before cutting back to himself. Leaf'Pool would blink :- her tail flicking in a gentle manner,"Is that a yes or..?" "...What." Leaf'Pool held her breath - a flustered glaze overcoming herself."Ash'Fur please wake up! I need to tell her before it get pasts sun'down!" Leaf'Pool ushered. Suddenly a rage overcame Ash'Fur ; he'd fling himself to the medicine cat causing her to yelp in surprise."Why didn't you take my final warning!" He hissed :- claws barely cutting through Leaf'Pools soft fur. She'd whimper from the pain :- her desperate attempt to escape his grip only caused her more pain,"Ash'Fur! G-get off me-please!" She'd plead - yet it was no use. Whenever she matched his gaze it'd just seem empty ; cold."Oh no. You're not going anywhere. You can say this is revenge." Ash'Fur smirked, enjoying the realization overcome Leaf'Pools facials."Is this about that one night- I didn't know what overcame me! I'm sorry-" Ash'Fur rolled his eyes,"No. It's about your annoying sister. I would use her tight little core- and have my warm seed invade her body. Maybe even impregnate her and we could have kits of our own. Yet unfortunately, Bramble'Claw got to her first." Ash'Fur sighed ; glaring down at Leaf'Pool."Yet you'll do. I won't be ignorant and pretend that you're Squirrel'Flight. I actually like the idea of the look on her face as she watches me fuck you." Leaf'Pools ears flattened ;- her soon pleading."NO- PLEASE ASHFUR. YOU CAN HAVE ANY OTHER MOLLY- NOT ME!" She'd squeak gently as she was tossed over, the feel of her hind'legs being forcefully spread caught to her. Ash'Fur would push her muzzle down into the soil - making her vocals muffled.

Ash'Fur would forcefully shove his length into her soaked core :- chasing Leaf'Pool to holler into the terra. It was no use however - as Ash'Fur kept a good grip onto her skull. He'd moan pridefully however, enjoying the tight, warm sensation her body gave."Hm, already giving into me? You're slutty body isn't rejecting my cock, luckily you aren't in heat. Because if that was a case-" Ash'Fur would cut himself off as he trusted deeper :- Leaf'Pools hips buckling as she moaned,"Gah- yes..I'd risk the chance of getting you pregnant." The Grey tom would continue to forcefully mate the medicine cat - her cries soon dimming. She must've given up :- or admitted to the pleasure. Regardless Ash'Fur didn't care. He was so full of rage from his heartbreak ; the dismissive decline of loyalty from his clan'mates. He needed this. He was almost in a trance - his pelt becoming hot and heavy. Pants and moans escaping his muzzle regularly. Due to his main focus being of receiving the pleasure from the Molly's core ; he'd lose grip of her cranium. Leaf'Pool gasped for air ; jerking her head back into Ash'Furs chest. He'd smirk - grasping his tongue over her lips,"Ah yes- my little s-slut!" Leaf'Pool moaned aloud ; her paws clenching."You seem close- well so am I. I'll tell you when you get to cum, right? You're my little bitch?" Ash'Fur purred soon stopping his eager thrusts,"Beg. Beg right fucking now." "F-fuck me Ash'Fur! I don't care if we risk me getting pregnant...I just want your seed to invade me! I need you- I w-want you! F-fuck y-yes..!" Leaf'Pool begged the tom ; his precum dribbling out of her soaked core. He smirked - forcefully lowering himself and Leaf'Pool,"A-ah yes!" Leaf'Pool groaned :- Ash'Fur gripping ahold of her neck as he thrusted deeper, causing her to give in once more."A-arg...Cumming-! Cum with me right now Leaf'Pool!" The tow cats screamed in pure pleasure ; cumming themselves. Crows fluttered upwards from the overhead of branching :- escaping the scene. Leaf'Pool panted softly ; Ash'Fur licking the back of her neck."Y-yes...I fucking..Love you.." Ash'Fur smirked laying next to Leaf'Pool. He'd throw a gentle paw swoop around her :- pulling her closer into his grasp. The two would share a soft purr ; cuddling all until the next sun'rise.
